Hi Everyone,

The Disability Pride Parade is here! It's going to be a great time, and the art party at CASS on June 5th from 10am-1pm will be a great way to make art, be proud, and have fun.

From the Disability Pride Parade flyer:

What is Disability Pride?

It is about being happy with who you are and sharing yourself with the people around you!

What is going to happen at the celebration?

- We will gather outside Bankers Hall at 315 8th Avenue SW at 10:30 am
- The parade begins at 11:00 am. We will stroll down Stephen Avenue Walk and end up at the Olympic Plaza
- We will celebrate what makes us each unique and how much we all have in

Common, with a day of entertainment and fun until 2:00 pm

How much does it cost?

It is free! We will have music, snacks and a ton of fun!

Invite friends, family, colleagues and care workers! Make a banner! Bring a sign!

Decorate your adaptive device!

Please register on the Disability Pride 2019 Eventbrite so we know how many people to expect :)

There are a number of community cleanup days happening right now. Whether you have large items to dispose of, donate, or want to volunteer, there will be a way to do that in a community near you. For a full list, check out <https://www.calgary.ca/CSPS/ABS/Pages/partnership-programs/community-cleanups.aspx#/?1=4> ^[1]

Last but not least, If you are ever stuck for free things that you can do in Calgary, check out <https://www.calgary.ca/CSPS/Pages/Free-Activities.aspx#/> ^[2] . It lists all of the free City of Calgary activities going on, and I'll bet you can find one that's right for you!
